Went Through.

Edwin Forrest concluded to give Knoxville the go-by, and accordingly did so. Well, we had much rather for him to have done so than to stay and perform, if he would have spoken as roughly of this city as of Chattanooga.

Silent Eloquence. The "eloquent pleadings" of Alderman Lewis | fer railroad purposes.

in regard to the pay of Aldermen on Friday night, alluded to in the two last issues of the Whig and Register was audible only to the reporter for that paper. We were present and failed to hear them. The Eight Hour System.

The above schedule went into effect at the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad shops yesterday. This will have the effect of retaining a large number of workmen in employment who would otherwise have been suspended, temporarily. A few have been put on the suspension roll temporarly until work gets Man Killed at Johnson's Depot.

On last Saturday morning a man by the name of Mitchell, while getting off the train at Johnson's Depot fell between the cars and had one of his legs badly crushed, from the effects of which he died on Sunday night. He was buried on Monday. This is another instance of the terrible danger of attempting to leave a car while in motion.

Personal.

Col. Robert Owens, now a member of the Virginia Legislature, formerly a prominent railroad official, is registered at the Atkin House. Colonel O. has a host of warm friends in this city.

Col. James White and Lieutenant Sam. Bell, of Hawkins, are in town on railroad business.

Alderman for the Sixth Ward.

We are authorized by W. A. Henderson, Esq., to say that he is a candidate for re-election as Alderman from the Sixth Ward. Mr. Henderson makes the race at the earnest solicitation of many of the heaviest tax-payers of the city. Board than Mr. Henderson.

Died.

On yesterday evening, the 3d instant, Mrs. W. B. HUNTER, wife of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Dr. T. C. Hunter.

third year of his age.

The deceased was a native of Washington county, Virginia, but long a resident of this county, where he had a wide acquaintance, and was a printer by occupation. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, and was buried at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, with the honors of that Order, Grand Master John W. Paxton, officiating. The funeral services were most impressive, and were witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends.

Relief for the Colored Poor.

A large meeting of our colored people was held Monday night in the colored Methodist Church, te organize for the relief of the destitute of their race. Rev. G. W. Levere was Chairman and Green Fields Secretary. A committee, composed of Rev. G. W. Levere, J. P. Jay, W. F. Yardley, Esq., Henry Mason and David Brown, was appointed to see the other committees to relieve the poor and co-operate Lester; 6th, J. W. Fowler; 7th, J. M. Mcwith them. Several cases of suffering were re- Cloud; 8th, Jno. Tunnel; 9th, Wm. Llewellen; ported, and ten dollars collected for general relief. Give this praiseworthy cause help. J. H. Nickle; 13th, J. T. Doyle; 14th, J. P. Another meeting will be held at some place next Monday night.

The Forrest Muss.

Forrest and his troupe fully intended coming to Knoxville until he saw Chattanooga. This sink hole so disgusted him that he made up an excuse and passed on through out of the State. On the 31st ult., Jos. McArdle, his business manager wrote one of our hotels, as follows "On account of other engagements made by the manager, Mr. Holland, Mr. Forrest will not be able to stop at Knoxville." On the 2d inst., W. H. Holland dispatches as follows: "Impossipossible for Mr. Forrest to play in Knoxville. Stage and hall too small."

Mr. Forrest's business man saw the hall and stage before he advertised to come. After making the engagement he was in honor bound to fulfil it. Tickets were sold to the amount of $1,000, and he would have realized fully $1,500 the two nights. His failure to come was, to say the least, mean.

The County Court. FIRST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The Quarterly County Court met on Monday as usual, forty of the Justices present.

The committee appointed at the last term of the Court to examine into the operations of the the 20th of October, 1870, for Knoxville, Tenn. County Workhouse presented their report, which showed the institution has been a pretty heavy expense to the county. They however recommended that it be kept in operation, which the Court resolved to do, and appointed Justices Julius Ochs, John L Moses and Matthew Simpson, as Commissioners for its man-

The same gentlemen were elected Jail Commissioners for the year 1871.

The Commissioners for the County Poer House presented their annual report, which was a very satisfactory exhibit of that institution.

Judge Jones, Chairman of the Court, recommended the rates of taxation on taxable property and privileges for 1871, for county and railroad purposes. Justice Ochs suggested that the tax bill should be referred to a special committee to report the rates. The following rates were fixed for the year:

On each poll, $1. On every $100 taxable property, county tax 20c, Railroad tax 20c. On State, County and Railroad bonds, on their real value, 10c for County, and the same for Railroad. On sales of land and town lots, one mill on the dollar mentioned in the deed.

On merchants, an ad valorem tax of 20c on each hundred dollars of the capital invested, also a special tax on those reporting $5,000 or less, $10; those reporting a greater amount of capital shall pay on each $10,000 of capital so reported, or fraction thereof, $20.

On Peddlers on foot, $10; horseback or with a vehicle, $50; for each horse used over one, $10. On Brokers, $1,000.

On Fire Insurance Companies, $200. On Life Insurance Companies, $50. On Circuses and Menageries, each day and night's performance, $100. On Slight of Hand, Legerdemain, or other exhibitions per day, except circuses and menageries, each day and night, $5.

On Theatres, $100. Each petition filed in the Courts for division | the support of the friends of these measures. or distribution of estates, $3.

Each appeal, writ of error, or certiorari from the Circuit to Supreme Court, $3. Each appeal or certiorari from a Justice of the Peace, $1. Each presentment or indictment, $3.50.

Each original suit, $2.50. On artists for gallery in Knoxville, $50, payable semi-annually. Any other portion of county, $10, payable semi-annually.
On race tracks one mile, $100; half mile, $50; quarter mile, $25.

Billiard tables, $10 each table, and same for railroad tax. Ten pin alleys, $20, and the same for railroad purposes.

Shooting galleries, $25 each, and the same Brokers of real estate, $20 Hotel and tavern keepers each room in the extra eopies of the Daily.

louse, except two, 50c. Livery stables each stall, 50c. Omnibusses, $10; hacks and carriages run for pay,$5; drays, $2; carts, $1. Peddlers of sewing machines,$10.

Peddlers of liquors, $50. Horse and mule dealers, $5. Cattle dealers, $5. Brewers, $10. Pawnbrokers, $50.

Butchers, $5. Marriage licenses, $1. The expenditures of the county for the year 870 were, $18,534.68. The assets of the county for the same time vere, $35,687.48. The subscription to the Knoxville and Kentucky and Knoxville and Charleston railroads was $200,000. Of this amount Judge Jones has purchased in of the county bonds $42,700. The county has also on hands, $11,000 State bonds.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS. The court met yesterday pursuant to adjourn-

A memorial was presented by Win. Rule, Hon. Geo. Andrews, Prof. M. C. Butler, J. A. Rayl and Perez Dickinson setting forth the urgent demand for free common schools, and asking the court to take such steps as will provide for the organization of such a system of free schools in Knox county. The court was addressed on the subject by Hon. O. P. Temple, Colonel John Baxter and Mr. W. A. Henderson, each of whom presented in a masterly manner the advantages of free schools.

Justice G. W. Mabry moved that the court proceed to levy a school tax for the year 1871, of two mills to each dollar of taxable property, and one dollar on each poll, to be in lieu of all other county tax on polls, for the support of free common schools. The motion was prompt-He has been a faithful member of the Board, ly seconded by Julius Ochs. Justice L. Julius Ochs, G. W. Mabry, John L. Moses, J. P. Ford, W. A. A. Conner, and John Tunnel, were appointed Commissioners, with full power to make such arrangments under the law as are necessary to carry out the intent of the foregoing order of the Court.

The Court proceeded to elect a census taker to take the voting population of Knox county, as contemplated by a recent act of the Legislature. I. P. Alley, G. W. Summers, and John Chumles were put in nomination for the position. On the second ballot, Mr. Chumlea having received a majority of the votes cast, was declared elected.

The following gentiemen were appointed Tax Assessors for 1871:

1st district, Julius Ochs; 2d, Matt. Simpson; 3d, S. D. Cole; 4th, S. J. Tarver; 5th, John 10th, W. T. Smith; 11th, W. N. Maxwell; 12th, Ford; 15th, D. F. D'Armond; 16th, H. L. Clift; 17th, Jno. P. Jack; 18th, J. M. Cardwell; 19th, A. F. Smith: 20th. I. N. Hansard: 21st. L. D. Johnson.

Sheriff Gossett presented his report of the late election, relative to taking stock in the Holston River Bridge Company, by which it appears the measure lacked eleven votes of receiving the re quisite three-fourths vote required by law.

Justice John L. Moses submitted a proposition to submit the question to the people again, which was carried. Objection being made that the proposition was not explicit enough on some points, a section was drawn up to obviate all objections mentioned, pending the discussion of which, the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this

To the Voters of the Third Ward.

Having been solicited through the columns of the CHRONICLE to become a candidate for Alderman for the Third Ward, I have, after personal solicitation from many voters, consented to become such a candidate. I make the race not as a party man, for I think that elections for municipal offices should be upon the merits of the candidates. I am in favor of city improvements, of an economical administration of corporation offairs, and decidedly favorable to a thorough system of public schools for the children of the city. I shall be glad to receive T. M. SCHLEIER.

COMMERCIAL. Knoxville Wholesale Market.

Review of the Produce Market for the week ending January 3d, 1871. CORRECTED BY J. W. GAUT, MARKET SQUARE.

KNOXVILLE, January 3, 1871. There has been no material change in the market since our last report. The grain market is brisk. Corn, cats, and wheat are in demand at fair prices. There has been some inquiry in regard to bulk meat and lard, and some shipped at low prices.

apples remain in the country yet, but there is little demand for them. Peaches would bring a fair price if we could get them. In wheat, we quote to-dag: Good white wheat, well cleaned, would bring $1.00 per bushel, while an inferior article not more than 70@80e. Red and Walker wheat will sell at 80@85c., owing to the quality.
